CONVENTION CALL.

To the Republican Electors of Pennsylvania:
After consultation and correspondence with the members of the Republican State Committee, and by their direction, I hereby give notice that the Republican electors of Pennsylvania, by their duly chosen representatives, will meet in State Convention at Harrisburg, Wednesday, August 19, 1891, at 10 o'clock A. M., for the purpose of placing in nomination candidates for the offices of State Treasurer and Auditor General, for the nomination of delegates to the National Convention to be held at St. Louis, Mo., in August, 1892, and for the transaction of such other business as may be presented.
Notice is especially directed to the fact that, in accordance with the provisions of the last mentioned act, each Senatorial district is entitled to a representation of three delegates in said National Convention, two of whom only can be members of the majority party in said district. The electors of each district are therefore requested to make proper nominations for delegates in said convention, the rules governing the nomination of candidates for State Senator to be applicable.
In this connection the Chairman desires to call the attention of Republican voters to the recommendation of the State Convention of 1882, that "they allow the greatest freedom in the general participation in the primaries consistent with the preservation of the party organization."
WM. H. ANDREWS, Chairman.

LET all honest Republicans keep an eye on those who are now engaged in crying the loudest for harmony and against machine politics. They savor of "mushrooms."

Waifer: "What will you have, sir?"
Robinson: "Steak."
Waifer: "With mushrooms?"
Robinson: "No, sir; none for me."

THE present attitude of the Journal demonstrates that paper's howl against "mushroom" Republican clubs was a pure, unadulterated fake. Such papers dislike the "mushrooms" as much as the small boy does candy.

IF THE Press, Journal and like papers really wish success for the Republican party why are they not consistent? Heretofore they have been charging Robinson with being an organizer and suckling of the "mushroom" clubs but now they condemn him because he has had the manhood to step forward and say that he is opposed to such organizations and does not want their support. The truth is that those who have been charging Robinson are the parties who have been instrumental in creating the "mushroom" growth, and now that the fungus is shut out of the Republican market the Press, Journal, et al., find themselves hors de combat.

Mr. ROBINSON would have shown good taste and sound judgment if he had not thrust himself so prominently forward at the executive committee's meeting and had permitted another to offer the resolution which so stultified his own previous conduct.—Miners' Journal.

The definition of the above editorial is that Robinson should have remained silent under the charges and should have allowed the "mushroom" club fakins to complete their dirty work by presenting a resolution condemning him for that of which he was not guilty. Mr. Robinson would have been very foolish had he not taken the stand he did before the Executive Committee. He unmasked his accusers and proved himself innocent with one blow. When the Journal attempts to show that Robinson had no right to defend himself it shows its ears.

The great clinch pending in Louisiana between the lottery and anti-lottery parties seems to have aroused the Louisiana tiger from his lair. The lottery is a disgrace to Louisiana, no doubt, but if it cannot be abolished without carrying the open threats of revolution by both parties into effect we cannot think the principle involved worth such a sacrifice. It is a turbulent people anyhow, and threats are to the masses there as fire to tow. The lottery furnishes an excuse to the masses for gambling, a business fatal to fixity of purpose and therefore destructive to public morals. It is not many years ago that people supposed to be foremost in respectability were firm supporters of the lottery. The protests indulged by northern papers were passionately resented by the most reputable organs of public opinion there. There has not been time for a formidable public sentiment adverse to lottery gambling to grow up, and as all moral growth is slow it would seem to be the best policy not to carry the war beyond an earnest but peaceable struggle at the polls. Beyond that lies great danger to the stability of things in Louisiana. Probably the lottery party may resort to fraud to gain its end. Let it do so. Men enlisted in a moral enterprise cannot afford to copy the methods of the evil they labor to overcome.

BOROUGH BUDGET.

GLEANINGS BY THE LOCAL CORPS OF REPORTERS.

THE SUMMA BURGLARY REGALLED

One of the Stolen Papers Found and Restored to the Owner. Were Mahanoy City Parties the Burglars?

One of the papers that were missed after the safe belonging to Paul Summa, of South Main street, was blown open by burglars several days ago, was found yesterday and restored to the owner last night.

John D. Trezise, of town, is employed in the office of Superintendent John Skeath, at Mahanoy City. Yesterday a friend on a coal train found a paper on the railroad, near the Mahanoy City P. & R. depot. The paper was turned over to the engineer of the train, who remarked to Mr. Trezise, "This paper was found on the railroad. It looked like a bond of some kind, but it isn't." The engineer was about to throw it into the fire, when Mr. Trezise said, "Hold up! What is it?"

"Oh, a paper belonging to some Hank." Mr. Trezise took the paper and, upon glancing over it, found that it was Paul Summa's certificate of citizenship. The paper was brought to town, and Mr. Trezise, accompanied by a HERALD reporter, called upon Mr. Summa. The paper was delivered and Mr. Summa was told where it was found. It is believed that Mr. Summa will have a search made in the locality where the restored paper was picked up with the hope of finding more papers or other stolen property.

Politics and Politicians.

Major Finney is enthusiastically in favor of George B. McCreey, of Philadelphia, for State Treasurer. Nothing would suit the Shenandoah people better than to see Mr. McCreey receive some substantial public recognition. When Shenandoah was swept by the conflagration of November, 1888, no member of the Philadelphia relief committee worked harder or more persistently than did George B. McCreey, for the relief of the sufferers. In addition to this, Mr. McCreey is an ex-Schenoykill county "boy" and should be nominated old Schuykill will give him a rousing vote.

Mr. Pomeroy's boom for delegate to the Constitutional Convention is an unprecedented one and should be consent to be a candidate there will not be the slightest doubt about his nomination. Thus far the matter has been entirely in the hands of his friends who are legion, and should be ultimately decline to run it will be a great disappointment to them.

J. J. Francis is making a warm fight among the Democrats for a delegateship to the Constitutional Convention. He is not allowing the grass to grow under his feet and if he does not "get there" it will not be his fault.

Popular Excursion.

One of the most popular and cheapest summer excursions is the annual Heller excursion over the famous and picturesque Lehigh Valley railroad, to Niagara Falls, which takes place this year on Saturday, July 25th. The fare is only $8.50. Tickets are limited to 10 days and good to return on any regular train. Stop off privileges are allowed at Buffalo and Elmira (returning) affording passengers an opportunity to take in Watkins Glen. This is certainly one of the best offerings for a summer outing, and as the fare is very reasonable, within the reach of all.

Lakeside Locals.

It is now proposed to hold a county picnic at Lakeside. It will be popular. Our German friends should not forget to attend the Maennerchor picnic at Lakeside next Tuesday. A moonlight hop will be given at Lakeside on Wednesday, the 22nd inst. Several hundred invitations have been issued and the affair promises to be one of the events of the season. The members of the committee of arrangements are: Messrs. Henry Wiederhold, John A. Grant, Harry Hunter, O. A. Kelm, George Patterson, H. H. Zullich, George H. Krick, E. C. Walter and Alex. Butler.

A New Business.

P. J. Cleary has opened a store in the Ferguson's building, on East Centre street, and is prepared to furnish the local trade with fine leather and shoe findings and all kinds of shoemaker's supplies. His stock is a large one and well equipped to fully supply all demands of the trade. 6-15-91

WORLD'S FAIR ESTEDDFOD.

A Greeting Sent Out by the Secretary.

Prof. William Apudoc, who will adjudicate at the grand out-door esteddfod at Lakeside on August 10th, is the secretary of the World's Fair esteddfod and in his greeting to the Welshmen across the Atlantic and in this country he says:

Please allow me to state what the National Cymrodorion intend doing. We have already commenced a financial scheme by which a fund of from $20,000 to $50,000 is secured, and that a year in advance of the esteddfod.

Here is what the Cymrodorion propose: First grand choral contest—Choirs to number from 250 to 300—First grand prize, $5,000; second grand prize, $1,000; also a World's Fair esteddfod gold medal to the leader of first and second best choirs. What are the choruses to be? Time enough for that.

Second choral contest, male voices—Choirs to number from forty to fifty—First grand prize, $1,000; second grand prize, $500, with a gold medal to conductors of the winning choirs. Again, for we must not neglect the poets, or woe be unto us!

The bardic chair alliterative ode, Awly y Gadeir—The awd must not exceed four thousand lines. Subject, "Issus o Nazareth." (Joans of Nazareth)—Grand prize, $500, and the carved oak bardic chair, with a gold medal, besides the honor of being proclaimed chief bard, and chaired according to the old grand ceremony, and that in the only international esteddfod ever held.

It is proposed that a national song and chorus be written for the occasion, commencing "We are the People," etc. Gwilym Egr writes by every locomotive of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul R. R. that every mouth of all nationalities, during that week, shall shout "Bandieded! Gogonia! Cymry am Byth!"

We trust that grand choirs will commence organizing at once. There is no true and permanent success without system. Let all Welsh hearts in America hope that at the Swansea esteddfod the promoters and managers and the people of the esteddfod will hearken to our Macedonian call.

Children's Day.

To-morrow will be Children's Day in Fowler's M. E. Sunday school, commencing at 7 p. m. Elaborate preparations are being made for the event and the following programme has been arranged:

- Recitation, "A Word," Jessie Beach.
- Duet, "We Shall Meet."
- Doxology.

New Trains.

Commencing to-morrow, July 18th, the Philadelphia and Reading railroad will considerably increase its Sunday train facilities. By the new arrangement a train will leave Pottsville at 7 a. m. and arrive in Shenandoah at 8:47 a. m. Train leaving Shenandoah at 7:48 a. m. will, in addition to the close connection heretofore made at Mahanoy Plane for Pottsville, also connect for Shamokin, arriving there at 9:27 a. m. On the return trip train will leave Shamokin at 4 p. m. and run through to Pottsville, making all regular stops and connect at Mahanoy Plane for Shenandoah. By this arrangement also the train leaving Shenandoah at 3:05 p. m. will make close connections with train to Williamsport.

Seasonable Shorts.

Peaches scarce yet.
Bananas abundant.
Apple dumplings nearly ripe.
Blackberries appearing.
Huckleberry crop immense.
Raspberries getting scarcer.

Potato crop very fine.
The hay crop will not be as short as was expected.
Cider will be plenty this year.

A Workman's Fall.

Frank McGorvin, of Pottsville, arrived in town on a stretcher yesterday afternoon and was transferred from a Pennsylvania to a Lehigh Valley train to be taken to the Miners' Hospital. While at work tearing down an old building McGorvin fell from a scaffold, breaking his right wrist and right ankle.

LARGE GAVE-IN!

A DISASTROUS MINE BREAK NEAR WILKES-BARRE.

TWENTY DWELLINGS WRECKED!

Terrible Consequence of a Nurse's Carelessness—An Octogenarian Figures in an Elopement. Illness of the Pope.

Wilkes-Barre, July 18.—A disastrous mine break took place at an early hour this morning at No. 2 mines of the Kingston Coal Co., at Edwardsville, this county. A large part of the mine was abandoned some years ago, and of late several slight caves have occurred, but the one of this morning will rank as one of the most extensive and disastrous that ever took place in this region.
The first shock was succeeded by another settling, which was more violent. The ground sank in great holes, and split in chasms in all directions. Four houses went down in heaps of ruins. They were those occupied by William Thomas, Thomas Levers, John Williams and Thomas E. Roberts. They are entirely wrecked. Many others were badly damaged and made uninhabitable. To-day the people in the vicinity are taking all their goods away and finding other quarters, for it is feared that further settlement may occur at any moment.

One After Another.

Pittsburg, July 18.—At Rankin Station, near Braddock, yesterday morning, David Bell, aged 23 years, employed at the Carrie Furnace, and a leader at the house of Charles McGrattin, left for his work. He did not return for supper and at 7 o'clock last evening his naked body was found floating in the Monongahela River. He had been drinking hard of late and it is not known whether he was accidentally drowned while swimming or committed suicide.

Two hours later a lamp exploded in McGrattin's dwelling and two of his children, Robert and Charles, aged 7 and 10 years respectively, who were sleeping at the time, were burned up with the house.

This morning about daylight Harry Rowe and Peter Kneel, who boarded with McGrattin, went to the ruins to look for some of their effects. While searching in the debris a brick chimney fell on them, killing Rowe almost instantly and fatally injuring Kneel.

Ate Her Little Children.

Pine City, Minn., July 18.—A fishing party from this city have just returned from the pine forests of Snake River, bringing with them a wild woman and her 16-year-old daughter. The daughter tells a story of terrible suffering and privation.
She says that the husband and father of the family was eaten by wolves while in an intoxicated condition last March. Since that time they have had no food in their humble cabin. The three younger children died of starvation, and were cooked and eaten up by one by the mother and eldest daughter. The mother's mind finally gave away and she is now a raving maniac.

Dead, Dying and Crippled.

Erie, July 18.—A careless nurse girl left Carl Schwartz's two children, Lena, aged 3, and baby Annie, alone in a back yard in the vicinity of some matches and an oil can. The baby was in her carriage; Lena wheeled the matches over and began to play with the matches. The mother found both children in flames, and in her frantic efforts to save them was almost burned to death herself. Little Lena is dead and the baby will die and the mother will be a cripple for life, while the father who was in very precarious health, lies unconscious. Emil Streuber, who saved the mother's life, was frightfully burned about the hands.

Eloped at 80.

Washington, Pa., July 18.—Samuel Frye, a wealthy farmer living at Twilight, this county, has shocked his relations by eloping with Mrs. Belle Housman Ward. He is 80 and she 40. Frye has for generations been a pillar in the Campbell church near his home. His first wife died two years ago, leaving him alone in the world. The more he looked around him the more he felt the need of a helpmeet, particularly as his relatives didn't appear to care what became of him.

The Pope Stricken.

Rome, July 18.—The Pope was seized with a sudden illness yesterday. Dr. Conarelli was hastily summoned and the Pope afterward recovered. The only disquieting symptom is that he is apt to fall into a profound sleep even when taking an airing in the Vatican gardens.

A Chinese Leper.

New York, July 18.—Inspector Dillingham, of the Bureau of Contagious Diseases, was called upon to-day to diagnose the case of Chin Hop Sing, a Chinese laundryman at 403 East Fifth street, pronounced to be a genuine case of leprosy of eight months' standing.

A FRACKVILLE INDUSTRY.

Interesting Reading that Applies to Shenandoah as Well.

Do you want employment in a factory where the work is light, clean, healthy and remunerative? If so, you are one of the many in this town whose interests have been shamefully neglected. The Board of Trade and your town paper have devised a means whereby you are to be furnished with employment, and that, too, in a manner that will give to you not only your wages, but every cent of profit that the factory makes. As you are to be so deeply interested in this establishment it will be necessary to take you into our confidence in the matter and explain many little details that would not otherwise interest or concern you.

In the first place, the Board proposes establishing before November a factory that will give employment to fifty girls. The work is not hard; machinery will do all the heavy work, and the only thing required of you will be dexterity in guiding the material and more expert in this respect your wages will increase proportionately, and there is no sound reason why you cannot earn a good and independent competency very shortly after the factory shall have been started. Now, to do this, it will require between five and six thousand dollars, and at the last meeting of the Board some gentlemen very kindly promised to contribute $1,000, so that we have now only $4,000 to raise, our factory to supply, and our young women to be set to work.

It is unnecessary to ask if you wish to earn your own living; if you wish to help your parents in their hard struggle. You would not be an American young woman if you did not, and to help you do so the Board of Trade has devised a method which, when put into practice, will afford you the much needed opportunity. Now, since we have taken you into our confidence we expect you to help us, and the way we want you to help us is to talk to your parents about it, talk to your neighbors about it, talk to your companions about it, ask every gentleman friend what interest he is taking in it, and then when you shall have brought the matter most thoroughly before your friends we want you to come to the public meeting, listen to what the gentlemen have to say, and then make up your minds that you are going to work in the factory and become a part owner. For the present you can tell your friends that you want to work, that you want a factory started here, and that you want the gentlemen who talk so much about Frackville's future to indulge in a little more practical demonstration of their faith. You can very readily learn for yourself the difference between promises and acts. The act you want, we want, the town wants is for each individual to come forward and say I will take so much stock in a factory that will employ 50 of our young women. It will then be only a question of a few weeks when your town paper shall have the pleasure of submitting a notice to the public that fifty young women are wanted to work in the factory. You very probably may wonder what this Board of Trade is organized for and why it should take such a great interest in securing employment for you on such liberal terms. Well, we may perhaps as well take you into our confidence in this matter, too, and tell you that the Board of Trade is organized for the purpose of inducing factories to locate here and to promote the general welfare of the town by devising means for securing employment for our people. The first and most important step is to secure remunerative employment for our young women, and to that end the Board pledges itself to start this factory. Now let us see what you can do toward helping. We know you but half try, success is assured.
